SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER
28th April 2019

TODAY'S READINGS:

No more we doubt Thee, glorious Prince of life...

When the risen Jesus appeared in the Upper Room, why was it locked? The disciples were afraid, frightened to be honest. Jesus had been killed; would that be their fate too? In their fear, they all began doubting Him. When He appeared they realised He offered a life changing message: Jesus Himself was the message. We can feel afraid; fear is a part of life. Often beneath fear is doubt: Does He really care? Where is He when I need Him? When we are confronted with death, sickness, unemployment or situations that disappoint us we can ask ourselves such fearful, doubting questions. St Thomas' profession of faith reassures us not to be afraid. Jesus knew fear, remember Him in Gethsemane, therefore, He sees and understands us when we are afraid; He gives us strength to overcome our fears and do the right thing. We can feel horrible for doubting Him; but His mercy and compassion are far stronger than our doubts. No matter what we are facing in life, look to Jesus and remember He is mercy and compassion; He is "My Lord and My God."

...Life is naught without Thee; aid us in our strife!
